THE SPIRIT OF LINCOLN LEAVES THE PAST AND LOOKS TO THE FUTURE

SENIOR OFFICER PAGE CLASS HISTORY

Entering in the fall of 1947, the class of 1951 was exposed to the traditions and moods of Lincoln. For leadership, the class looked to officers and adviser, Mrs. Hazel McCaskill. Clark Bean, Collen Cruikshank, Gloria Finkenstein, and Bud Stavney fulfilled the presidency.

This year's seniors proudly led the way in rallying to Lincoln. There were many forces which strove to divide, but every senior exhibited patriotism for class and school. Of good times together there are many memories:

After a fine dress-up banquet December 8, the Senior Play, "Outward Bound", was presented. To honor mid-year graduates, dress-up day was also observed. The play enjoyed a second performance in February.

At mid-year, the graduating class put their shoulders to the wheel to secure annual funds, and promoted five drives simultaneously: a shoe-shine campaign, clothes-hanger collection, cookie sale, barn dance, and sale of faculty photos.

Senior Week, which was observed May 18 through 24, was crowded with things to see and do, climaxed with the Senior Review. The Prom and Commencement brought the final heights of a high school career.

"We only regret that we must now leave Lincoln. We shall always remember the convictions we began to develop here, and with which we must now impress companions in college, business, home, and state.

"As we are indebted to Lincoln, so are we determined to carry his spirit into the future. Whatever we may do, where-ever we may be, we shall do and be as we learned at Lincoln....And such a way will always be a credit before God and our country."

THE SPIRIT OF LINCOLN IS INHERITED

President
Sharon Burley

Advisor
Miss J. Sleeper

Vice President
Gordie Richardson

Student Council
Nickie Mackie

Secretary-Treasurer
Janet Hossfeld

Totem Reporter
Jean Heg

Student Council
Eunice Morris

Next year's top men on the Totem pole, the Juniors, have showed themselves to be a backbone of the Lincoln spirit. They have contributed much to school functions and student government and have given outstanding performances in the athletic field. Capable hands will inherit Lincoln traditions next year.

Class officers were Sharon Burley, president; Gordie Richardson, vice-president; Janet Hossfeld, secretary-treasurer; Nickie Mackie and Eunice Morris, Student Council representatives, and Jean Heg, Totem reporter. This capable group brought the class through a successful year, with the help of Miss Sleeper.

Junior Day in the spring proved fine entertainment, as did the first all-school Christmas party. The Junior Red Cross drive was also sponsored by the class of '52.

The juniors will recall their junior year as one of the most carefree and happy years of their life. They look forward to many privileges and responsibilities as seniors. Perhaps there is some regret in leaving the rank of junior, but sadness is minimized because a grand year is ready to greet the class of '52.

THE SPIRIT OF LINCOLN GROWS

Jim Otto
President

Pat Fitzgerald
Vice-President

Barbara Giersch
Secretary

Bill Atwell
Student Council Rep.

I. WILLIAMS

Bill Koons
Boys' Club Rep.

Barbara Wilson
Totem Representative

This was the first year at Lincoln for sophomores who entered from junior high and the second year for others. All soon adopted the casual air of old-timers, and showed their importance as a part of Lincoln.

Under the guidance of Miss Williams, the class pitched right in and helped in the clean-up drive and in the traditional talent show for freshmen. (Last year the class got off to a good start with a show for their older class-mates, the sophomores.)

To lead the sophomore class the following were elected: Jim Otto, president; Pat Fitzgerald, vice-president; Barbara Giersch, secretary; Barbara Wilson, Totem reporter; Bill Atwell, Student Council; and Bill Koons, Boys' Club representative.

The leaders which the sophomores contributed to Lincoln activities and athletics have certainly demonstrated its standing. Next year, as upper classmen, those of the class of '53 will know how to achieve great things.

THE SPIRIT OF LINCOLN IS DISCOVERED

A. P. Johnson
Adviser

Reed Bement

Colleen Murray
Student Council

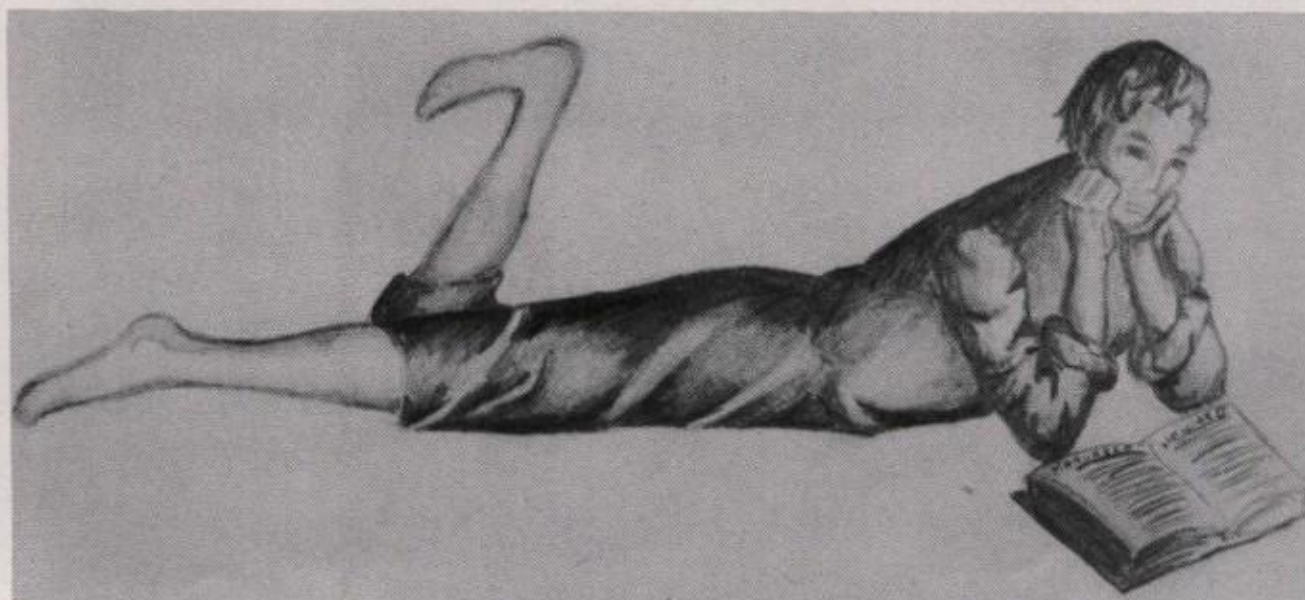

September brought with it a colorful and curious group of new people known as freshmen. We wonder if it was the maps of Lincoln, our blank expressions, or our various tickets to Thompson's Old-Fashioned Freeze in the Annex, which the seniors so kindly bestowed upon us, that advertised our being freshmen. But it didn't take long for the boys to master the art of slouching in their seats in best senior style and the girls to know the names and faces of all the athletes.

Our main activity this year was helping in the clean-up drive. We also entertained the sophomore class with a movie and music provided by members of our class and assisted with the Christmas party.

To head the freshman class, we elected Reed Bement, president; Joan Chatalas, vice-president; Virginia Purpur, secretary; Colleen Murray, Student Council; and Mary Alice Witherow, Totem reporter. Mr. A. P. Johnson advised.

SUMMARY OF FOOTBALL SEASON

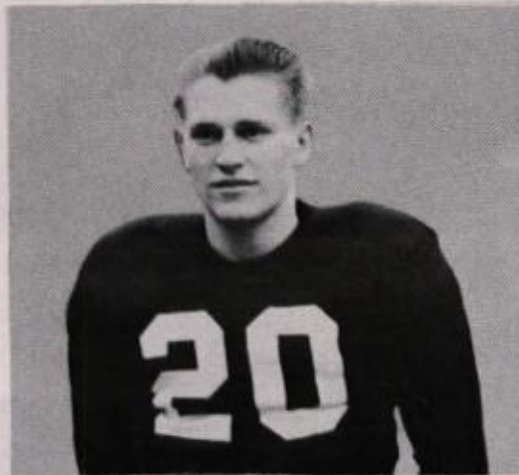

Although the Lincoln gridders wound up in fourth place, they placed two players on the All-City squad. They were Paul Farrar, end, and Tom Magee, guard. Two Lynx were given honorable mention: Jack Hardman and Don Dundin, both backs. Hardman was also chosen to receive the treasured Inspirational Award, a gold football, by his teammates.

1950 FOOTBALL

Lincoln 13-Ballard 6

Lincoln opened the season in fine style by beating their Scandinavian neighbors 13-6. The Beavers were unable to stop the sturdy running of Jack Hardman and Don Dundin.

Lincoln 14-Roosevelt 26

The fine running of Roosevelt's Mike Monroe proved too much for the Railsplitters as they lost their first game of the season. Paul Farrar's 70 yard touchdown run in the closing seconds was the highlight of Lincoln's game.

Lincoln 35-Queen Anne 0

The Lincoln squad came back in good form to trounce an undermanned Grizzly eleven. Jack Hardman's 108 yards from scrimmage paved the way for the Abe victory.

Lincoln 30-West Seattle

The Wallingford boys scored their second successive shutout by downing the Indians. Lincoln's fullback Bob Ganzini lead his teammates with a fine passing attack.

Lincoln 6-Franklin 25

An inspired Quaker eleven defeated the Abes to further their own championship hopes. Lincoln's touchdown was scored by linebacker Bob Davis when he recovered a fumble and dashed 20 yards to pay dirt.

Lincoln 13-Garfield 19

The Bulldogs snapped a 14 year losing streak to Lincoln through the good running of Jim Teufel and Chuck Lewis. The boys from Lincoln played one of their best games of the season but were unable to stop the Garfield attack.

Lincoln 26-Cleveland 0

The Lynx ended the season in grand style by defeating a scrappy Cleveland eleven. Lincoln totaled 355 yards to Cleveland's 264. Howie Hamblin showed well for Lincoln.

THE BILL NOLLAN INSPIRATIONAL TROPHY

Presented to Lincoln High by Coach Nollan, with the names of all the past basketball players who were inspirations to their team since 1921 during the 21 years that he was head basketball coach. Mr. Nollan retired as hoop mentor this year, turning the reins over to Norm Dalthorp, his assistant. On the trophy is room for 20 more names, the 1951 addition being Collen Cruikshank.

Coach Dalthorp did not come up with one of the mythical dream basketball teams which was slated to be right up there in the championship race. Instead from a City Championship and a 2nd in the State Tournament for the championship, he had one letterman returning with very little experience, that being Collen Cruikshank. Before the season started everyone expected the Lynx to be lucky to win but two ball games, that is, everyone except Coach Dalthorp and the team. The Red and Black started out the season by losing to Cleveland in the opener by one point, 39-38. Then they proceeded to lose to Garfield 32-36, Ballard 46-51, and Queen Anne 39-41. Every game was a battle which showed what hustle, fire, and determination the team had. By this time they had gained a little experience, and this was enough to win the next three games by good margins; Franklin 52-36, who was without the services of Ken Darrow their star center, West Seattle 32-35, and an upset on their own floor against Cleveland 50-42. This winning streak was made possible by the fine playing of Orville Anderson who was the leading scorer in the city; Collen Cruikshank, who displayed a powerful backboard control game; and Bill Squibb, Don West, and Bob Herring who played a good all-around game. Next the Lynx met Garfield and Ballard who defeated them by close scores. Both of these games were tense with the Lynx leading until the final seconds. After this the Wallingford five caught fire and proceeded to win their next three ball games; Queen Anne 51-35, Franklin 49-40, and West Seattle 47-45. In this streak Orville Anderson and Collen Cruikshank provided the winning punch.

At the end of the league play the Lynx were tied with the Garfield Bulldogs and the Franklin Quakers with a six and six record for 3rd place. This necessitated a play-off to decide who would play in Hec Edmondson Pavilion for 3rd and 4th place. Lincoln drew Garfield for one spot and for the first time this year the Lynx handed the Bulldogs a sound trouncing 48-42. In the Pavilion, the Red and Black met the Bulldogs again and after a nip-and-tuck battle, drew within one point in the final minute where Bob Herring stepped to the foul line and sunk a shot to tie the score at 37-37. In the overtime the Bulldogs made three quick baskets to win the game and thus take 3rd place.

The memory of this team will long linger in the Halls of Lincoln High because of the show of sportmanship, spirit, and determination that this team and coach displayed in doing so much with so little.

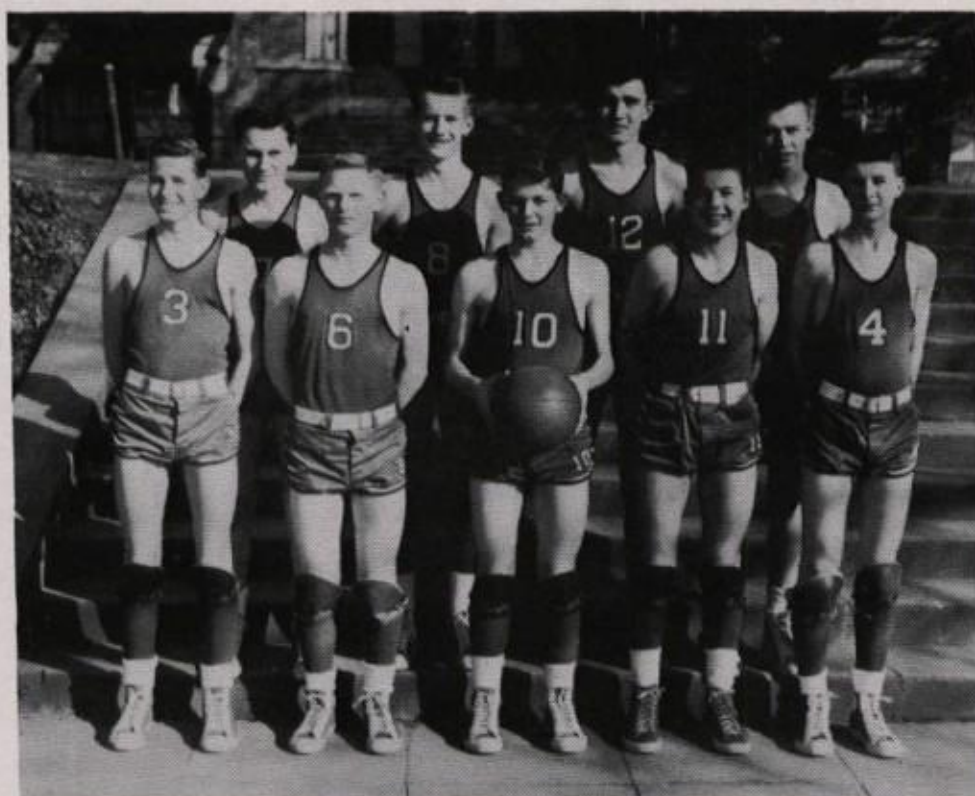

SECONDS THIRDS - BASKETBALL

Second Team

Row 1; Dedo, Morgan, Cameron, Houk. Row 2; Odegard, Ellis, Alexander, Hilderman.

Delmis Houk, senior basketball manager, was awarded his varsity letter, along with the rest of the team. The managers had the tough job of keeping uniforms and equipment in order for the players.

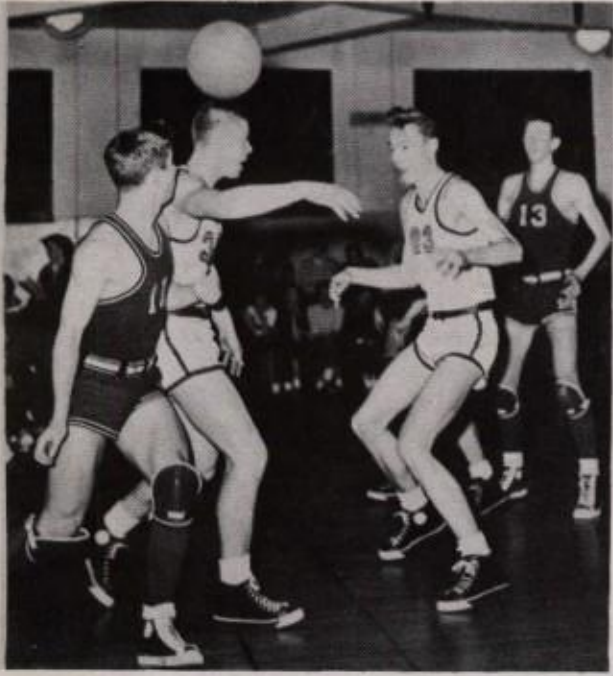

Third Team

THIRD TEAM BASKETBALL SQUAD

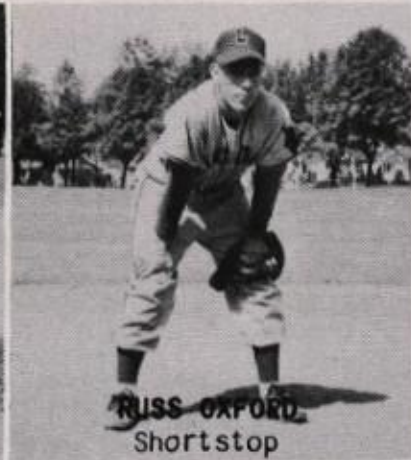

The third team basketball squad, coached by Mr. Dishnow, although inexperienced, proved to be a hustling, aggressive group. They showed they would be giving the varsity lettermen a tussle for positions next year.

LINCOLN BASEBALL TEAM—1950

Lincoln's 1950 baseball team presented Coach Bill Nollan his third straight championship in the year, after previous titles in Football and Basketball.

The team has a regular season record of nine wins and three losses. Two of those losses were at the hands of their arch foes, the Ballard Beavers. The other loss was delivered by a fighting Cleveland nine.

In the playoff game for the City Championship, held in Sicks Seattle Stadium, against Ballard, Lincoln handed the Swedes a sound trouncing 11 to 6. The Lynx were led by Bill Nicklos' tremendous hitting, consisting of two triples, a double and a single in four trips, and pitcher Paul Farrar's thirteen strikeouts and Bill Stuht's arm, one of the best at third base in many years.

During the season the team was led by Captain Russ Oxford, who was awarded the All City short-stop position for the second straight year, and Bill Mills, a letterman who collected the home run title and the All City centerfield berth. Bill Stuht, All-City third base man was also the Washington State representative in the All American Boy's game played in New York every August.

Two junior boys also gained the heralded All City honors. They were Paul Farrar, the mainstay of the Lynx pitching staff, and Jerry Hubbard, second baseman.

It will be a long time before the Lincoln baseball team of 1950 will be forgotten because of the fight and determination it showed in winning the City Championship.

1951 BASEBALL

The Lynx took to the diamond defending their 1950 championship with only five lettermen, Paul Farrar, pitcher; Bob Davis, catcher; Jack Hardman, second base, converted from pitcher-outfielder; Tom Magee, outfielder, and Keith Peterson, outfielder. Farrar, 1950 All-City was the nucleus of the pitching staff, with Doug Schwarz backing him up. Players up from the second team, Don West, infielder, Paul Sava, infielder, Phil Godfrey, shortstop, Dick Hart, catcher, Bob Herring, infielder, and Bill Squibb, infielder, rounded out the squad, and the team was on its way to a hoped repeat performance. They were chosen to finish second by pre-season prognosticators.

1951 TRACK

Byron Ellison

The track squad, after coming in a strong second for the past two years, have another strong well-balanced 1951 team.

Led by twice All-City high-jumper Ken Dunn, are Larry Gray, Phil De Masi, Collen Cruikshank, and Clark Bean. All are going for their third letters.

The pre-season predictions favor Garfield, with Lincoln close behind, but the squad, still remembering Roosevelt defeats of the past two years, hopes to change that.

Along with the seven returning letter earners are several outstanding sprinters, hurdlers, and distance men who turned in fine times last year, but did not acquire enough points for a letter.

TRACK

FROSH - SOPH

The frosh-soph track team, under the supervision of Coach Nixon, successfully opened the 1951 season, promising the 1952 varsity many new prospects. Returning from last year's team were Dick Ploof and Henry Hall. Also outstanding were Rod Hilderman, Dick Rall, Jerry Lawrence and Bill Hoppe.

GOLF

The golf squad, with four lettermen, Bud Stavney, Herb Magnusson, Don Dawson, and Dick Byam, started out the season by defeating Queen Anne 21-3, with Stavney medalist.

Rounding out the team were Don Masterson, Don Biggar, Ken Khele, and Bill McAlpine.

Coached by Mr. L. W. Johnson, the team appeared in top form as the season progressed, and they hoped for another title.

TENNIS

TENNIS TEAM

Row 1; Givan, Wicknick, Lemke, Coons. Row 2; Gorohoff, Thayer, Smith, Nelson.

The tennis team, coached by Mr. Starr Sutherland, started off the season by successfully defeating Cleveland 6-3. With three returning lettermen, the squad promised to be a title contender. Don Lemke, a letterman, filled the number one spot, followed by Ken Gorohoff, Boyd Givan, Fred Wicknick and Gary Thayer. Others include Bob Lokkebo, Van Aikman and Ron Anderson.

Hi,
Good luck

GIRLS SPORTS

The school year began as usual down in the girls gym with the unpacking of new equipment, registering of entering Freshman and Sophomores, and down to hard work.

The year proceeded as usual with a few major events.

Early in the spring softball, badminton, dancing and showers were all thrown to the wind for splinting, artificial respiration and transportation. The gym scene took on quite a different look due to the new civil defense program.

But as usual during the last two weeks of school the girls again took their strolls up to Wallingford to engage in a rousing game of softball. The last days of school found our three Physical Education teachers busily packing-up for another well-earned vacation.

Student Council, as the voice of the students and as their leading force, did much during the 1950-51 school year. Miss Gerriets, Miss Moeser, and Mr. Lee Koenig lent their talents as faculty advisers. Coordinated by Herb Mead, the various committees performed the student council functions.

STUDENT COUNCIL SPONSORED COMMITTEES

POINT SYSTEM: Betty Berryman, chairman. This system allotted a maximum of 13 points for school offices and club memberships. This year the points allotted for various offices were lowered to insure more students of participation in school activities.

ELECTION COMMITTEE: Bob Horchover, chairman. This committee mapped out the general procedure for the school elections this spring. Designed to clarify qualifications for student offices and duties of future student leaders, this committee forms a vital part of student government.

ROOM SPEAKERS: Don Larson, chairman. The room speakers reported to rolls which had not sent representatives to the roll room council meetings. Thus everyone was kept in touch with the Student Council and with all school activities.

BULLETIN BOARDS: Barbara Longpre, chairman. This committee has charge of decorating the main hall bulletin-boards. School projects or events were used as themes, impressing upon every student the need of co-operation and participation in school affairs.

CARD STUNT: Connie Ackerman, chairman. This committee presented half-time entertainment at many Lincoln football games last fall. The committee worked with the Lincoln Band in upholding Lincoln's tradition of frequent and popular entertainment during the halves.

SCHOOL BANKING: Jim Brehm, chairman. This committee handled all transactions connected with school banking, which takes place in the roll rooms every Tuesday morning. Students were thus granted the opportunity to bank during school hours.

CLEAN-UP COMMITTEE: John Baker, chairman. This committee supervised the upkeep of the school grounds. Each class cared for one side of the building. The class chairmen were senior, Marion Hannah; junior, Bob Horchover; sophomore, Barbara Giersch; and freshman, Reed Bement.

ASSEMBLY SEATING COMMITTEE: Peggy Keller, chairman. At the start of each semester this committee assigned permanent auditorium seats to every roll. These assigned seats eliminated confusion and disturbance while a program was in progress.

FINANCE COMMITTEE: Eunice Morris, chairman. Every month this committee reports to the Council any information concerning the financial status of the school. This information is secured each month from Mr. Swanson, the school treasurer.

INTER-HI REPRESENTATIVE COMMITTEE: Herb Mead, chairman. Members represent Lincoln at conferences during the school year to promote an understanding of leadership and government among students. This assures efficient execution of student affairs.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE: Marjorie Ross, chairman. This committee assumed the responsibility of publicizing the functions and activities of the Student Council through the weekly paper, posters, and room speakers.

"T" DAY

Tradition Day, Lincoln's Birthday, is one of the years' most important occasions, including a double assembly, faculty luncheon, festive lunch menu, and dance. The presentation of Collin Cruikshank and Gloria Finkenstein as Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln proved a highlighting event. Fine publicity and response made the day a success. Ten committees planned this year's activities, under the chairmanship of Lillian Enberg.

ROLL ROOM COUNCIL

Roll Room Council, nucleus for Student Body discussions, met once a week under Nancy Cope's direction. It consisted of representatives from all the rolls, who reported discussion back to their first periods.

PEP CLUB

The Pep Club, new to the ranks of Lincoln organizations, has a large energetic membership. Determined to co-ordinate school spirit, the club has promoted clap-worthy assemblies and other enjoyable events. Officers were Peggy Keller, Shirley Watson, Ted Maynard, Joyce Newgard, Dick Pardo, and Helen Kirkpatrick. Mr. Pitzer advised.

Responsibilities of office in Girls' Club this year went to Janet Zeeb, president; Betty Berryman, vice-president; Pat Dunn, corresponding secretary; Jo Anne Ramey, recording secretary; and Joan Anderson, treasurer. To further administer, twenty-three committee chairmen were appointed to the cabinet.

Under the guidance of Miss Hensel, adviser, the Girls' Club planned a Mother-Daughter tea, the "Windmill Whirl" dance, several parties, and joined with Queen Anne in sponsoring two all-city conferences.

The goal of this organization is to involve more and more girls in activities, which will foster a greater democratic attitude. All girls should be given the opportunity to get into the fun of working for the school and at the same time develop individual poise and abilities.

PTA TEA SERVICE COMMITTEE

The P-T.A. tea service committee aided in entertaining faculty and parents. This Girls Club committee was guided by Zoanne Shultz.

FIRST AID COMMITTEE

First aid planning was the responsibility of the First Aid Committee under Dian Eckern. This was important as the school took steps toward complete preparation for possible disaster.

DRIVES COMMITTEE

The Girls' Club Drives Committee, under Ruth Johnson, was very busy this year with Creed, Red Cross, Firland, Ryther Child Center, Health Week, and Stationery drives. Health Week and the Health Assembly were also co-sponsored.

SKI CLUB

Ski activities, movies, and election of inspirationals Clark Bean and Lois Horn were outstanding in the Lincoln Ski Club program. Officers were Clark Bean, Ben Grevstad, Christa Dahl, Sally Stult and adviser Mr. Gilbert.

BULLETIN BOARD COMMITTEE

Helen Brannan was in charge of the fine bulletin board displays this year. Her work certainly brightened up the halls and people's faces.

POSTER COMMITTEE

The Poster Committee, directed by Janette Anderson, cooperated with other committees on publicity and all forms of poster and art work.

PUBLICITY COMMITTEE

Directed by Marilyn Manerud, the Publicity Committee insured the publishing of Girls' Club activities in the TOTEM WEEKLY and published their own work, the "Lincolnette."

CLERICAL COMMITTEE

The Clerical Committee, directed by Kathy Bryant, completed many of the tasks necessary to the function of Girls' Club. Ruth Stibre ably aided the committee in turning out printed material.

Friday, June 8, at the Nile Country Club, the Senior Prom of 1951 was held with beautiful decorations and the music of Esquires lending a romantic mood. Don Fuller, Doreen Erickson, Alice Bracher, Lauri Foster, Joanne Jones, Jackie Tjossem, Arlene Werth, John Baker, Phil DeMasi, Jack Null, Ron Brumbaugh and Jerry Ramey were in charge.

SENIOR BANQUET

A fine turkey dinner was enjoyed at the Senior Banquet, December 8. Wally Melvin acted as Master of Ceremonies, while Jack Null was chairman. Entertainment and ship-style decorations gave the dinner a festive air.

SENIOR WEEK

Celebration of their coming graduation extended a whole week, May 18 to 24, for the seniors. The week was filled with election of Senior King and Queen, an assembly, "Blue Monday", bow tie and pigtail day, loud shirt and dirndle skirt day, an after-school dance, and the Senior Revue. It came to a sweeping close with dress-up day. Nancye Turner was chairman for the week.

SENIOR ANNUAL DRIVE

The Senior Annual Drive succeeded in netting $99.94. This amount was used to make a better annual and to embellish section pages. Coat hanger collection, dance, shoe shines, cookie sale, and sale of faculty photographs aided in the money-raising campaign.

P.T.A. MIXER AND DANCE COMM.

Thanks to the able efforts of the P.T.A. Mixer and Dance Committee, Lincoln students enjoyed many evenings planned by this group. Events were held at the Green Lake Field House or in the gym. Freshmen, sophomores, juniors, and seniors were represented on the committee.

SENIOR COMMENCEMENT

Monday, June 11, at eight o'clock was the date of commencement for the senior class of 1951. Seniors, the girls in white robes and the boys in royal blue, participated in the processional and awarding of diplomas.

Lincoln High bid good-bye to another class.

ACTIVITY CARD COMMITTEE

The Activity Card Committee sold activity cards to 95% of the student body, enabling Lincoln to tie Roosevelt in the annual contest. The hard-working committee, coordinated by Mr. Lamb, made the students activity-card conscious with an assembly and fine publicity.

Jim. It sure has been wonderful having you in my classes. I hope to see you with Hall.

LIBRARY

Lincoln's library serves the students' many needs for reading material. The library has over 9,000 books and a substantial file of magazines and is managed by Miss Eastman, Mrs. Beaver, Mrs. Lumley, and students.

LOST AND FOUND COMMITTEE

The Lost and Found Committee, sponsored by Miss Werby, aided in the returning of lost articles to the students. The station, located by the Girls' Club, was open during both lunches and for ten minutes after school.

ATTENDANCE OFFICE

Attendance is strictly recorded and absences accounted for in the high school attendance office, under the direction of Mrs. Baker. Students assist in checking absentee and sign-out slips, filing, noting early dismissals, and phoning.

FIRE, EARTHQUAKE AND BOMB DRILL SQUAD

The fire, earthquake and bomb drill squad supervised school drills. The squad was trained to direct students in emergencies, and preparations were made to administer first aid. Hall patrol also assisted in these drills.

COUNSELOR'S OFFICE

The Counselor's Office is a stopping-place for all students. Counselors Earl Cochran and Jessie Orrell are sympathetic to adjustment problems, ambitions, and over two thousand personalities. They're people with a big job.

ART LIBRARY

Seattle's only high school art library at Lincoln offers valuable and interesting books and pictures. Directed by Miss Cole and Barbara Perine, it has sponsored a tea, open house, and flower arrangement contest.

MAIN OFFICE

The nucleus of the school, the main office, is managed by Mrs. Washburn, Mrs. Davies, and a host of helpers. Registration, school records, administration work, information, and bulletin notices are their responsibilities.

HALL PATROL

The hall patrol has protected student and school property by preventing unnecessary wandering in halls during classes. Don Dundin, Jim Anderson, Larry Grant, and Mr. Miller, advisor, guided the activities of the patrol.

QUILL and SCROLL

Quill and Scroll, honorary journalism society, is dedicated to improving and coordinating Lincoln's journalism department. Publicizing journalism activities, and collecting a panel of pictures illustrating various phases of news work were typical projects. Mr. Gilbert was adviser.

ET CETERA

Et Cetera, a magazine containing essays, poems, and short stories is published annually by the creative writing classes under the apt leadership of Miss Graves, Lincoln's creative writing teacher. It enables students to exhibit writing skill and expression.

GERMAN CLUB

Advisor, Mr. Kimball and officers Marjorie Squeazy, Bill Elijah, Jim Jones, and Paul McCullough maneuvered the German Club through an active year. Parties, the annual Kandy Kane Sale, and a picnic were given. The club corresponded with the German-American Friendship Club, sending Christmas packages to their German friends.

FRENCH CLUB

The French Club sponsored many activities this year, including a Christmas party, inter-school meetings, and dinner at a French restaurant. Showcase displays and the study of a program of the life and works of the French writer La Fontaine were educational projects. Miss Schofield advised, while Barbara Davies, Pauline Westling, and Stan Jacobson officiated.

DEBATE

Lincoln has had a very successful year in speech and debate, placing Marianne DeSpain in the Washington State Resources Contest, rating second in the Annual Speech Festival, and coming through in other matches. The fourteen members of the debate team, coached by Mr. Laing, also participated in inter-school debates.

BOOK ROOM

Mr. Porter Hatley, who supervises the book-room, is in charge of distribution of books and supplies to the various classes. Replacement and repair of text-books is a big responsibility. Teachers and students cooperate to help simplify this work.

STAGE FORCE

Have you ever wondered who belonged to the mysterious feet which traveled across stage before the curtain was down? Investigation reveals the stage crew at work shifting scenes, dimming lights, and moving sets.

Mr. Roys, Duane Arlowe, John Latimer, John Heilbrum, John Berkman, Bob Caulfield, Don Bishop

MIKE SQUAD

A new public address system eliminated many of the problems of the Mike Squad this year. The boys, led by John Berkman and Mr. Roys, were very busy, however, preparing for assemblies and other events.

MOVIE SQUAD

Well prepared to handle film troubles, the Movie Squad, under the direction of Mr. A. P. Johnson and student-led by Malcolm McKernan and Jim Brehm, has been employed showing many films to classes.

TICKET FORCE

Keeping a watchful eye on activity cards and ticket stubs was the job of the boys on the Ticket Force, under the leadership of Dick Yandon and the direction of Mr. Scheele. Ticket sale for sports events and other school activities were aptly handled by the girls.

F.S.A.

F.S.A.

An active organization for freshman and sophomore girls, the F.S.A., is the first step to many school organizations. Among other activities, the girls make the colorful pom-poms for Lincoln games and put up the gala hall decorations. With Janet Burns as upper classman adviser, the Freshman-Sophomore Auxiliary is a part of Girls' Club and a worthy organization for girls.

RAILSPLITTERS

RAILSPLITTERS

The familiar black and red emblems of the Railsplitters, freshman-sophomore boys' organization are often seen around school. A service club for future big wheels, Railsplitters is a part of Boys' Club. The underclassmen assist their older classmates in many activities.

MINUTE BOYS & GIRLS

MINUTE GIRLS AND BOYS

These alert minute girls and boys, headed by Betty Berryman, meet twice a month to discuss various campaigns, and activities going on at Lincoln. Reports are made to roll classes, and in this way school objectives are co-ordinated.

STUDY HALL CHECKERS

Study Hall Checkers assisted in 118 and in the auditorium. The girls, chosen because of good scholastic and citizenship records, took roll, received green slips, listed absences, and fulfilled other routine tasks.

MUSIC

Lincoln is proud of her band which played at every football game of the season as well as several assemblies and many pep assemblies, helping to raise school spirit. Under the direction of Mr. Stanley Weiss, the Senior Orchestra played at several school presentations, such as the Talent Show and the Senior Revue, as well as preparing their own assembly.

Barbara Andriesen and Judy Arness

CHANTERS

The Lincoln Chanters had another very successful year, under the able direction of Mr. Carl Pitzer. They did much outside singing, as well as presenting beautiful programs for the Christmas and Easter assemblies.

Lincoln High was honored to have their choral group represented Washington in singing on the National Safety Broadcast.

The Chanters also sang for the Governor's Conference, The Lyons Club, and many others.
